

Lockport Jetport Held Best

BY MARGE RATCLIFFE

LOCKPORT -- The Lockport City Council may have enough members on hand tonight to meet at 7:30. Four of seven councilmen were absent Monday night, so no business could be conducted.

An informal discussion developed when Captain Clarence Hess of American Airlines spoke regarding a proposed airport that could be located in Will County.

Mayor George Nordstrom introduced Hess and said he invited him to speak as both a pilot and resident of Lockport Township.

Alderman George Wolfe stated that before Nordstrom took office, he, Wolfe, had tried to have the council take a stand one way or the other on the airport controversy. The council refused at the time.

Hess then explained he had become involved because he was aware of the history of O'Hare International Airport and how it came to be located where it is today. He said that as far back as 1941 sites both east and west of the Lockport area were considered prime spots for an airport.

Hess said he was not trying to promote anything and that he does not own property in the area, with the exception of his home. He continued to say that at one time 20,000 passenger trains ran daily, while now there are only 450. Passenger service has been abdicated to planes or buses, he said.

The country has become dependent on air service, he said.

Wolfe expressed the opinion that the financial gains that would come from an airport would perhaps not overshadow the unpleasantness of planes over the area day and night.

Hess said that because of wind direction, planes would not go over Lockport, but in other directions.

One person asked if the Green Garden Township site was not more adaptable. Hess said that in his opinion it was not.

A problem with that location is topography, Hess explained. Using Route 30 as an example, he said it is frequently resurfaced because of "terrible" sub-soil conditions. He added that a runway is very little different, and that the same problem would occur.

He also said O'Hare has a tremendous daily load. On Sunday, he said, United Airlines handled 18,000 persons, and American 12,000.

Discussion ended with Hess' remark that "We have a future here. I say, 'Let's make the most of it.'"

Review Of Streets Is On Agenda

BY JOSEPH SEVICK

LEMONT -- Time and price will be "the deciding factors" for the Peiffer and Warner avenue street improvements now being considered, according to John Kujawa, mayor.

Speaking last week after returning from a month-long around-the-world trip, Kujawa said, "I don't think that you should ride roughshod over people" when he was asked what may be in store for 27 property owners.

The village trustees will reconvene a special meeting Monday night at 8 p.m. following the regular village board meeting. The session was recessed Nov. 24 when many in a group of 30 persons became irate over the cost of the proposed improvement. Kujawa was on the month's trip at the time.

Using figures from an engineer's estimate of costs, assessment estimates were spread among the property owners in the area by a professional in the field from Chicago. Using footage and proximity to the streets to be paved, costs would range from $240 to more than $4,000 in one case.

Some persons at the meeting made a number of charges. Kujawa, who has been mayor for 18 years, rebuffed the claims in an interview last week.

He said that persons should "have no quarrel" with how the costs have been spread. "It's been divided up the way the law says you divide it up," Kujawa noted that the figures used are village engineer's estimates of costs. If the project is approved, competitive bidding will be required and the bonds for the improvement will have to be sold. A final price would then be established. It may vary somewhat from the estimate, Kujawa said.

He noted that the market for the improvement bonds is not good at this time because buyers are hard to find. That factor, plus the trustees' consideration of the cost burden, will make the most difference in the outcome, Kujawa forecasted.

Answering specific charges, Kujawa said the Oakland Heights subdivision was annexed by petition of the residents. Kujawa said Peiffer at the time was a two-level street. The subdivision had already been built, and was not under village control, according to the mayor. The board accepted the area on recommendation of the village engineer, though it was the last of that type to be accepted.

Kujawa said motor fuel tax funds can be allocated only for surface water drainage systems, not roads.

He termed allegations of influence to get Peiffer paved by Glenn McAdam, who is developing an area to the west, a "deliberate lie, not the truth... He has no connection at all."

The village cannot participate in the cost of the project, Kujawa said. He said it would be in the interest of the town to provide engineering services, however.

He contended it would be cheaper for landowners to have the project done privately.

New pavement, curbs and drainage systems would be included. The area affected is from the intersection of Peiffer and Warner Avenues; west on Peiffer two blocks to Walter St., and north on Warner for 390 feet.

Chief Wayne Ryder. The course covered the treatment of wounds, treatment of shock; artificial respiration; poison by mouth; injuries to bones and muscles; burns and common emergencies. The group will next take up advanced first aid. (Randall photo)

Train-Car Brush 'In Family'

BY GLENN LOGAN

MOKENA -- The Hamilton Rd. crossing of the Rock Island Lines at the west edge of Mokena was the scene of a mishap last Friday that had a surprise ending.

This crossing, like the one on Wolf Rd., is a rough one and Mokena Police Chief Wayne Ryder has written several letters to the railroad asking repairs. So far there has been no response.

He is renewing his requests this week because last Friday night (Jan. 2) at 9:55 o'clock a motorist crossing the tracks going east had the right front tire hit a hole and blow out, according to the police report.

Driver of the car, Roderick Pierson, 30, of 103 Glennell, lost control of the car and it swung over and straddled the tracks to the north, facing west. Pierson tried to move the car but was unable to do so.

Officer Gary Bednar of the Mokena police department arrived at the scene. He radioed for assistance and Officer Larry Moeller, of the New Lenox Auxiliary police, chimed in with some important information.

There was a freight train coming east, Moeller said, and he had put out a flare along the track which he hoped would cause the engineer to slow. He called again to say the train was passing Lincoln-Way High School, less than two miles from the Hamilton crossing.

Chief Ryder radioed Bednar to park the squad car as close to the crossing as he safely could and have all the flashers going.

Officer Bednar did this and it was successful. The engineer had slowed when he saw the flare set out by the New Lenox officer and was able to stop when he saw the flasher lights of the Mokena police car.

The engineer was very glad that he was able to stop without ripping the automobile apart. It turned out to be a sort of family affair. The engineer's name is Robert C. Pierson and he too resides at 103 Glennell, with Roderick Pierson. Roderick is his son.

Will Traffic Toll Shows Drop For 1969

WILL COUNTY -- There were six fewer traffic deaths in Will County in 1969 than in the preceding year, the totals having been 75 and 81 respectively but this is still a high count, according to Coroner Willard G. Blood, and should be substantially reduced.

How to bring about a reduction in the toll taken by motor vehicles is a question that police and safety engineers have sought in vain for an answer.

Coroner Blood says that speed is a major factor, and when one mixes speed and alcohol it is like playing with matches around gasoline vapor.

With several major highways crossing Will County there is a tremendous volume of traffic and where there is traffic one always finds death.

Of the 75 traffic deaths last year, 14 were in Joliet and 61 in the county at large. There were four Will County residents who died in other places last year as a result of traffic mishaps.

Eleven of 75 who died were pedestrians, the coroner's records show; 17 were killed in one-car accidents; 33 in accidents involving two cars; one in a 3-car collision; two when a motorcycle and cars collided; seven in car-truck crashes and four when cars met up with trains.

The Joliet Safety Council reports 402 persons injured in automobile accidents in the City of Joliet last year and 1,055 in the county.

There were no deaths last year, however, involving bicycles and automobiles, the coroner said. He attributes this largely to the emphasis placed on safety education by local police and school authorities.

Blood also noted there were no deaths in the county this year from plane crashes. There were a couple of crackups but occupants of the planes escaped serious injury.

In all the coroner conducted 124 inquests last year into 142 deaths and investigated or made inquiry into more than 300 more. The year referred to in this instance is Blood's fiscal year which ran from Dec. 1, 1968 to Dec. 1, 1969. The figures on the traffic deaths, however, are for the regular calendar year.

The calendar year also was used by Blood in his other statistics covering violent deaths. There were 15 homicides and 15 suicides. In the homicides seven were the result of shooting and five by knives. Eight persons used guns to take their own lives -- one person died by leaping in front of a moving train. There were two accidental poisonings -- children taking medicine to which they gained access. Nine persons died of injuries suffered in falls from considerable heights.

Review Farm Laws

By Congressional Quarterly

WILL COUNTY—The first order of business for the House Agriculture Committee when it returns to work in Washington in January will be to choose among three major proposals for new farm legislation.

With the Food and Agriculture Act of 1965 due to expire at the end of 1970, the committee has only a limited amount of time left to report out a farm measure. Since July, the Committee has been working at the same time on both food stamp and farm legislation.

The Senate has not even begun hearings, and farmers must know before the end of the crop year what they can expect in federal programs.

The Administration has proposed a new "set-aside" program for cotton, wheat and feed grains which would encourage the farmer to divert additional acreage from production.

After the farmer has agreed to set aside the additional acreage, he has complete freedom to plant whatever he wishes on the rest of his land—a policy which the Department of Agriculture argues will give the farmer greater freedom to plant than he has had since the 1930's.

A coalition of 24 farm organizations has been supporting extension of the existing price support and production control programs with some modifications for different crops.

The powerful Farm Bureau, however, has taken a separate stand on farm legislation, calling for a gradual phasing out of supports and controls over a five-year period.

The Farm Bureau has been arguing for a return to a completely free market system for years, but the outlook is for the Government to remain an active partner with most American farmers for some time to come.

District 33C Referendum Is This Monday

HOMER -- The Board of Education of Homer Community Consolidated School District 33-C will hold a public meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the Homer School Library on Monday, Jan. 12.

The purpose of the meeting is to outline plans for proposed additions to the school building. A question and answer period will be held after an overview of the plans for the proposed new addition is presented.

The board of education is asking the community to authorize, through referendum, the construction of six classrooms, restroom facilities and storage space. The amount of the proposed bond issue is $182,000.

All schools in the state must, by law, provide kindergarten after July 1, 1970, and all the classrooms of Homer School are filled with their present enrollment.

It is hoped that construction would be completed before the winter months of 1970-71. According to Luther Schilling, District 33-C superintendent, until the addition is completed, kindergarten will have to be held in the school library, thus forcing school officials to move book stacks and library equipment into the halls.

The entire district will serve as a single voting precinct and the polling places will be at the school building on the east side of Cedar Road, one-eighth mile south of Rt. 7. The date of the referendum has been set for Saturday, January 17. Polls will be open from noon to 7 p.m.

Providence Is Registering Now For '70-71

NEW LENOX -- Examinations and registration are on Saturday for eighth grade students who want to attend Providence High School in the fall.

Students should report to the cafeteria at 8:30 a.m. They will be assigned to classrooms for registration and testing.

A registration fee of $10 is to be paid at registration. The fee is non-refundable and non-deductible from freshman tuition. It is used to offset the cost of placing all information about the student into the Lewis College computer. This computer handles Providence's academic record-keeping.

Plenty of parking space is available. While students are taking examinations, parents may visit in the cafeteria, where refreshments will be served.

Administrators and staff members will be in the office to answer questions.

Registration and examination will end at approximately 12:30 p.m.

Providence is located at the intersection of Highway 30, Gougar Road, and East Washington Street. Exit and entrance for Interstate 80 are two blocks east of the school.

Watch Weeds Carefully

By Joseph Sevick

LEMONT -- What does nature do without any real assist from man?

"We don't know all we'd like, but we're trying to find out" is the answer from scientists keeping a close eye on 95 acres of land at Argonne National Laboratory. Sections have been made into prairie as it existed 150 years ago.

Why?

There are areas in and around our cities which are being restored to their natural state, cleared of civilization's scars. More will be needed.

Attempts to rid the air of pollution through natural processes have been made. These attempts will certainly increase.

Farm land is sown and tilled exclusively for corn, let us say, with the aid of fertilizers and chemicals. Is it altered so much in the process that it can never again support plant life that flourished there before cultivation?

A nuclear reactor releases radio activity into the environment in normal operation. For the sake of health and safety, scientists want to know how the radio-activity moves through plants and the earth and water.

Most of all, man wants to know more about how all things around him work.

It's the drive to understand, through exploration and study.

So, seeing what nature does in an area that could easily be called a weed patch is more important than impressive to the eye.

That's why scientists from universities managing the national laboratory decided in 1966 to launch an ecology program at Argonne. The federal site just to the north of Lemont had open ground with biological potential and was accessible to scientific university talent to do the job.

Dr. Jerry Kline headed the new ecology department, and Dr. Carl Jordon assists. Phil Gustafson, associate director in the parent radiological-physics division, has been keeping abreast of their work.

In the summers of 1967 and 1968, counts of plant types, insects, birds and animals were taken in the 95-acre test area near Lemont Road at the west edge of the lab site.

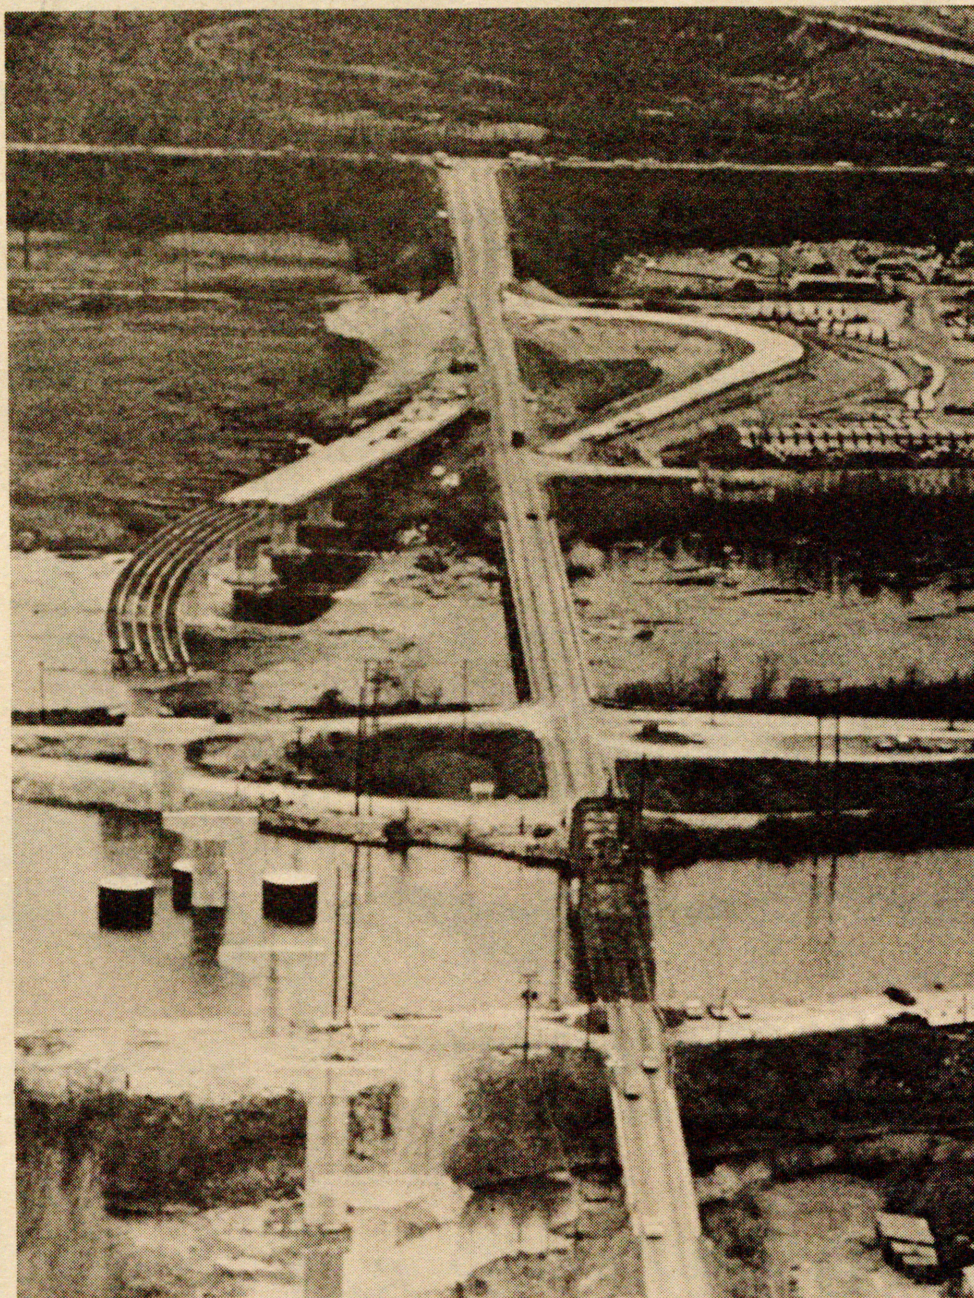

In the fall of 1968 and the spring of 1969, strips were plowed and planted with prairie seed from stocks specially raised at the University of Wisconsin and the Morton Arboretum at Lisle.

Just before Thanksgiving, the field with its alternate strips of newly planted authentic prairie seed and plants that had just grown up since the ground was last tilled, was burned. It will be burned twice yearly for the next four years because researchers think that in the environment of 150 years ago fires swept across the prairie about that often.

Scientists are to the point of seeing, now, what nature will do without any real assist from man. Other than the scheduled burnings, they're going to leave things alone.

It's a question of which will win out, and how. Will it be the authentic prairie plantings, or the growth that has come up on its own? Will some combination of the plants survive? The test seems to be working, but it will be about four years before all the results can be cataloged.

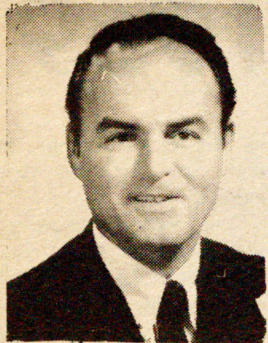

Seeing how it works will be the contribution to help create "green belts" for cities, cleanse the air, recreate balanced soil, protect living things in the nuclear age, and feed man's hunger for knowledge of the world.

Probe Airport Issue

SOUTHWEST -- Joliet hosted a meeting of Mayor Maurice Berlinsky's Ad Hoc Airport Committee, Dec. 29, in Joliet.

The innumerable problems involved in locating a suitable site for an international airport were once again aired and many views were presented.

George Nordstrom, mayor of Lockport, favors an airport location in Will County, noting that the revenue realized would enable local communities to finance many undertakings vital to the area.

The 32 persons present at the meeting brought forward almost as many ideas. Among them were: An airport operated by the Joliet Regional Port District which is permissible under state law; an airport site in Will County annexed by Chicago and operated by that city, and finally, a county-wide survey and a complete study by the Joliet Ad Hoc committee.

Slash Field Operations

MARLEY -- Loren Sass of Marley has produced 91 bushels of corn per acre with just three field operations, according to George J. Young, assistant extension advisor for agriculture in Will County.

Begin Art Collection

FRANKFORT -- Librarian Arlene Santoro announces there is the excellent beginnings of a permanent collection of local art on display at the Frankfort public library.

The judging committee of the recent Frankfort art fair, represented by George Lunde, of the Nicol and Lunde Antique Shop, presented to the library the prize winning entry judged best in the show. It is a fire terra cotta figure, "The Fiddler," by Katherine Zu. It will join last year's winner as the beginner of the library's art collection.

"Fine art and the printed word make good companions," said Mrs. Santoro, "as both represent man's endeavor to express himself.

Sass did planting, spraying and harvesting in the test.

He planted his no-til corn in standing clover. He followed planting with an application of paraquat and fertilizer. The paraquat gave quick knock-down of the clover and controlled weeds. Harvesting was his third and final field operation.

His conventional tillage check plot yielded 100 bushels per acre but required nine field operations: plowing, two diskings, applying fertilizer, harrowing, planting, cultivating, 2, 4-D spraying and harvesting.

Field production cost for the no-til plot was 35c per bushel. Advantages of the no-til method are less time required in field operations and improved soil and water conservation.

Cooperating with Sass on his five-acre, no-til plot were Ebert's Farm Supply, Mokena; Chevron Chemical Company; and the Will County Cooperative Extension Service.

To See Coast Beauty

LEMONT -- The natural beauties and the man-made attractions of the Pacific Northwest are narrated by the man who filmed them in the fourth installment of the Lemont Lions club Passport to Adventure series.

"The Pacific Northwest" is the feature and it begins at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 13, in the Lemont Grade School auditorium.

James Forshee is the travelogue cameraman and in-person narrator for the presentation. He's an Ann Arbor, Michigan, resident who was in the Marine Corps.

Travels to the Pacific area and a growing interest in motion picture photography beginning in 1950 sparked the combination of talents that has made Forshee one of the outstanding personalities in the travelogue field.

The feature coming Tuesday begins in British Columbia with Vancouver and its China Town, lawn bowling and totem poles. The scene shifts to Washington state with hydroplane races on Lake Washington and skiing on Mt. Baker. Nature's handiwork is evident in the Hoh Rain Forest, Olympic National Park, Mt. Ranier and Mt. Shuksan. In Oregon, there is a timber carnival, the Rose Test Gardens and Mt. Hood. These are only a few in the many attractions of the show.

The journey on film then includes a boat trip up the Rouge River to Spirit Lake and Majestic St. Helens.

Single tickets and discounted series tickets will be available at the door the night of the performance.

New Lenox Church To Build Addition

NEW LENOX -- The national growth reported in the Church of the Nazarene is reflected in the church at New Lenox. A move is underway there to build a new sanctuary with a seating capacity of 250 as well as to provide more room for the Sunday School. Response to the request for building funds is reported good.

The New Lenox Church of the Nazarene was organized in the late 1950's with 21 members signing the charter. The first pastor was the Rev. Doyle Baker, and the Lions Den on S. Cedar Rd., served as the place of worship. A lot was purchased for a church site at 123 W. Wood

St. and an educational unit erected.

The building also contained living quarters for the new pastor, the Rev. Gordon Rice, and a sanctuary that would seat 125. That was in 1960 and the Rev. Mr. Rice served the pastorate until 1964.

He was succeeded by the present pastor, the Rev. W.D. Huffman, who came to New Lenox from Cedar Falls, Ia., where he had served as pastor for almost 10 years, in the course of which a new church and parsonage were built.

In February, 1965, the need for more space resulted in the purchase of the property at 1119 N. Cedar for a parsonage, thus making more space available for the Sunday school.

Plans now call for enlargement of the church facilities at Wood and Cedar by the addition of a sanctuary with the basement arranged to give the Sunday school more class space.

Nationally the Church of the Nazarene membership and Sunday school enrollment has increased 30 per cent while giving for all purposes nearly doubled. Total giving in 1969 was in excess of $82-million as compared to $42 million in 1959, according to the church's report.

World membership is now 471,846, it was said.

Three new colleges started in 1967 and 1968 helped to raise enrollment at Nazarene learning centers to more than 9,000 students in 1969.

Oh, Those Highways!

Murphy Engineering, retained by the state to recommend a location for the north-south freeway that would turn east in Green Garden Township and make its way through the Steger-Crete area to connect with the major north and south highways in Indiana, may reach a tentative decision by the end of this month or next.

Before reaching any final decision, they will again confer with representatives of the various communities that will be affected.

In November there were nine routes outlined on the map and it is possible there will be others.

Frankfort and Mokena have a difference of opinion as to where the freeway should pass through in the area. Frankfort advocates having it pass east of Mokena in the vicinity of 108th Av. and cross U.S. 30, west of Connecticut Hills but east of the Will County Forest Preserve and thence south.

Mokena officials contend this would wreck plans for industrial development east of the village and recommend that the freeway pass west of Mokena.

According to the maps this freeway would have connections with the major highways it crosses, including I-80 and U.S. 30.

Of course, the state highway department will have the final decision on location of the highway and whether it would approve another interchange on I-80 within half a mile of the one at U.S. 45 is a question it hasn't answered.

Frankfort planners also desire an interchange with Center Rd., south of that municipality, to serve its industrial area.

There is a route not on the map that has possibilities. It lies to the west of Mokena and would cross Francis Rd. between Hillgate Rd. and Normandy Lane. It is for the most part an open corridor from far north of I-80 to as far south as one wishes to go, crossing U.S. 30 at the foot of the hill about three-quarters of a mile west of Wolf Rd. It is not expected that this route would necessitate displacing more than a dozen homes, if that many.

Speculating as to the route for the proposed freeway is a guessing game. And one should not lose sight of the fact that whether the road comes into Will County east or west of Wolf Rd. will probably depend upon its path through DuPage and Cook counties.

As any practical person will agree there is usually politics involved in routing highways and in consideration of the number of voters, and organizations, the same practical person will recognize that DuPage and Cook should have more clout than Will, and, therefore, have considerable influence in selection of the route to be followed.

There is no great rush about the route selection as of the present writing. Engineers say it will be several years before any work will be started unless....

That "unless" would be a big one if it was decided to build a major airport in the Frankfort area. If such a decision would be made this north-south freeway would become almost an "instant highway."

It does not look, however, as if any major airport will be built for perhaps 10 years, according to talk in aviation circles, since the expansion program for O'Hare has been decided on.

A $275-million improvement plan is underway at O'Hare and according to some of the experts this undertaking will answer needs for some years to come. O'Hare enlarged and Midway improved will serve Chicagoland for the new decade, they believe.

Regardless of airport locations traffic engineers agree that this north-south freeway spoken of is necessary. But it is well to remember that highways are not always happy ways leading to home, as the song has it. They carry a lot of trucks and cars, and trucks and cars mean more air pollution, as well as noise and people.

The only thing the area can do is hope that whatever comes it won't be too bad.

An Epoch Begins: What Lies Ahead

"If we can land men on the moon, we can do anything." These, or similar words expressing the same thought, have been uttered countless times since Neil Armstrong took his one small step in behalf of mankind last July on the surface of the moon. These words of confidence, unqualified and shared by millions, represented to a lot of people the most stirring single occurrence of the Year 1969. The great journey that inspired them may have opened a new epoch in human development, just as other great journeys have heralded fundamental change in the life of man.

Christendom itself may well have begun with the travels of Jesus. Centuries later there were the Crusades. Marco Polo's legendary odyssey spread the knowledge of an Asian civilization. The voyages of Columbus and other early explorers opened a "New World." They triggered an explosion of Western civilization that ultimately reached the shores of the Pacific Ocean. Always, a single man or a small band of

Pollution Rampant

Pollution. Few persons are now unaware of this blight that is rapidly destroying our air, lakes and wildlife. The ecology of our world is undergoing disastrous change. Our wildlife is being pushed out of its natural habitat and in many cases disappearing completely.

Industry and public utilities, reaping the profits of years of American prosperity, have invested little of their resources into preventing that which now is a problem of critical proportions. Until recently an uninformed and/or indifferent public ignored the destruction of our lakes, rivers and forests. The giant corporate entities spew forth their filth for all the world to see in apparent subservience to profits immediately at hand.

Electric generating stations, prime contributors of poisoned air and water, continue much in the fashion of their turn of the century facilities. A sulfurous cloud of poison gas spouts from their smoke stacks. It would seem they are offering their abominations to the heavens through these lofty structures. Despite their outcries of indignation and all their rationalizing it remains ever more apparent that they are unwilling to desist. It is high time the courts demand compliance to the strictest of regulations.

Undoubtedly the utilities will counter with the threat of increased rates. First the elimination of pollution by these companies is in order and then the question of increased rates can be aired. There is doubt that rate increases are essential in order to comply to the law. The almost monopolistic services offered by public utilities have assured them of continued profit and growth.

The Lockport-Romeoville area has long endured the dual threat of an ugly refinery complex and an electric generating station. The stench of their combined pollutants can be seen and smelled for miles. A continual smog hovers above us not unlike the Angel of Death... is there a better description? The grit, grime and gas is an expense to every homeowner. An expense which is not reflected in the monthly utility bills or at the corner gasoline station.

It's time the task was taken in hand. If the companies continue to drag their heels, then they must be made to comply. A hard, unequivocal line seems to be the only answer in fighting the giants of industry.

men by some unprecedented act of discovery has indelibly marked another age in the advancement of the human race. And so it was with the first step on the moon. Spontaneous expressions of bright certainty concerning our capabilities that swept the country and the world following that step gave immeasurable meaning to a year of uncertainty. The arms limitation talks are at last underway with the Soviet Union.

On the darker side, we have the spectacle of the peace marchers, the defamation of the flag and violent, unreasoning opposition to everything American still very much in evidence in U.S. cities. We still have the problem of inflation, the problems of ghettos and crime, the problem of providing essential services to a rising population while still preserving the purity of air, water and soil. Too, at a time when Americans in unprecedented numbers are exhibiting an affluence that goes beyond all bounds of comprehension, we still have the issue of poverty. As the year drew to a close, prices continued to rise, but the key business barometers signaled a slowdown. In Viet Nam, the Administration continued to hold to a course of measured withdrawal of U.S. troops. The President's refusal to be forced into precipitate action by moratorium demonstrations, coupled with a sober Address asking for public support for his Viet Nam war policies, appeared to win approval.

One of the more inspiring domestic events occurred early in the year when the nation turned out in tribute to General Dwight D. Eisenhower, at the close of a long and distinguished career.

The essence of the landings on the moon may elude our grasp for generations or centuries to come, yet the record on balance indicates that the U.S. and its millions of good citizens will be feature attractions in the unfolding story -- a story that began in epochal 1969.

Rust In Water To End

LEMONT -- By the end of the month Lemont's water lines should be clear of rust that has been coming out of many faucets since October, according to Joe Schudt, village engineer.

Work to replace bowls and a discharge pipe in the village's deep well started in October, but halted before finished because of a workmen's strike. The village has been using its shallow, reserve well in the mean time. Water from the shallow well contains some rust, Schudt said, but is totally safe.

Water will get back to normal soon. The deep well should be repaired and working by the end of next week, Schudt said. By the end of the month, water lines should be clear of rust.

Teaches Pattern Making, Design Of Gals' Clothing

LEMONT / JOLIET -- You can learn to make your own clothing patterns for smart, high fashion dresses, suits, skirts and coats in an unusual course that begins Friday at the Joliet YMCA.

Australian-born, and now a Lemont area resident, Mrs. Lorna De Santis is the instructor for both beginning and advanced pattern making and design classes in the ten-week series for women who have a basic knowledge of sewing.

She has made the Joliet YMCA the local center of the fascinating and unusual field of study, as women learn to draft a pattern and design their own fashions. Mrs. DeSantis has authored the new book "Basic Pattern Drafting For Fashion Design" which is now in soft cover volume and is being prepared for a hard cover edition.

In the beginning pattern drafting class, students complete a master basic pattern that is perfectly fitted to the individual's measurements. It is ready to use in making a design, or in adjusting commercial patterns. The basic paper pattern is made to body measurements in the first step.

This pattern is fitted in muslin in the second step. Next, necessary adjustments due to fitting problems are made in the muslin and are applied to the paper basic pattern.

In advanced pattern drafting and fashion design, students use their master basic patterns to design coats, dresses, suits and divided skirts in smart, current fashions suiting age, figure type and work.

Porters Capture 10th Win

LOCKPORT -- The Porters won their tenth game of the season Saturday night, but it took an overtime period for Bob Basarich's team to put down Joliet Catholic 57-50.

Jim Talkie, a 6'2" junior forward, led both squads in rebounding with 13, and the sharpshooting Hilltopper also led in the scoring column with 27 points.

Lockport, in trouble all night, held a 50-48 lead with only two seconds remaining in regulation time. Mike Draznik then sunk one from close in and the game went into overtime.

Sylvester Smith and Brad Travis led the numbers game for the Porters with 18 and 17 points respectively. Gil Fash and Smith each snared eight rebounds to show the way for the Lockport five.

Central, outscored in the second and third periods, went ahead by as much as four points during the fourth period. A conspiracy between Talkie and Draznik confounded the Porters' defense as they combined rebounding and aggressive play.

Lockport, now with a 10-2 record, plays Kankakee at Central, Friday night in a non-conference game.

LEMONT -- A two-week layoff apparently didn't have any ill effects on Lemont High's varsity wrestling team, for the local grapplers defeated Peotone 32-20 in a home meet run off Tuesday, Dec. 30.

Coach Al Albrecht's squad, now 3-4 on the season, will be hoping to breach the .500 level when the result of 2 forthcoming matches have been turned in.

A pair of Northeast Conference foes are on the docket for this week. Lemont travels to Plano on Thursday, Jan. 8, and then entertains Lisle on the evening of Tuesday, Jan. 13.

The local mat artists gained several decisions in the lighter weight brackets, but it was in the heavier divisions where all of pin points were registered.

Gaining triumphs via the pin route were Scott Barnett (145 lbs.), Mark Sniogowski (175 lbs.), Jim Mattas (185 lbs.) and heavyweight Harold Zarn. They each picked up 5 points.

Coming through with 3 point decisions were Dan Festin (115 lbs.), Mike Yeoman (123 lbs.), Terry Dauenhauer (130 lbs.) and Ken Hutchinson (137 lbs.). Also, seeing action on the mat were Rich Hancasky (98 lbs.), Tony Galati (107 lbs.) and Dwayne Slayton (155 lbs.).

There are some debates on plays or situations that began 21 years ago and are not yet finished and no doubt will be resumed the night of Jan. 27. The time for the dinner, incidentally, will be 6:30.

The speaker will be David Condon, a feature writer and sports columnist for the Chicago Tribune. He is not only a good writer but also is an entertaining speaker.

Tickets for the dinner are $6 and reservations are being made by writing Ralph M. Birkey, 511 Plainfield

Bag Is Up; No Deaths

SOUTHWEST -- Hunters bagged at least 154 more deer this year than they did in 1968, according to an Illinois Department of Conservation count. A preliminary survey showed 8,369 white-tails were harvested. In 1968, 8,215 were taken. A complete total for 1969 will not be available until all 60 deer checking stations have counts tallied.

Fewer hunting permits were issued in 1969: last year, 48,976 permits were issued, against 47,820 this year.

No fatal hunting accidents occurred during the season.

He is being congratulated by his coach, Pete George, for his first place finish at the 23-team U of I Invitational tourney. ## Early Lead Vanishes In 3rd Period, Game In 4th

NEW LENOX -- The Lincoln-Way varsity basketball team was making baskets like mad for a time last Saturday night on the Eisenhower High court at Blue Island. Then in the third quarter the Eisenhowers were making baskets like mad while the Knights couldn't have hit one had it walked up and said please.

You won't believe this, and the Knights can't either. The Knights had a 16-point lead shortly after the third period began -- their lead at the half was 14 -- and when that quarter was over the Lincoln-Ways held a one-point margin, 45 to 44. Eisenhower took care of that in the final frame when it tallied 18 points to the Knights 14. The final score was Eisenhower 62, Lincoln-Way 59.

Lincoln-Way fans hope to see their favorites back in the form displayed in DeKalb holiday tournament this weekend. The Knights have a couple of tough games in SWS play this week. They travel to Homewood Friday night for a game with the Vikings and to Rich East on Saturday.

In the game at Blue Island Campbell, of Eisenhower, was high point man with 21 points and the victors Harmeyer was next with 19. Harold Webb had 17 tallies for Lincoln-Way, Greg Palka 15; Minger and Istel had 10 each and Ryan was held to seven points.

The Knights had won six in a row until meeting Eisenhower and have a 11-3 record for the season.

Lemont Falters During West Chicago High Meet

By RUSS SANDBERG

LEMONT -- After dropping a first round verdict 60-50, Lemont High rebounded to capture consolation honors in the West Chicago High annual holiday meet.

The Indian varsity edged Addison Trails 58-57 in a real cliff hanger, and then rather handily disposed of St. Gregory 57-50, thus salvaging a measure of satisfaction after the disappointment of an opening round loss.

Coach John Jones' crew, now 6-6 on the season and 202 in Northeast Conference play, will be hoping to use these 2 latest wins as a stepping stone toward future league success.

Forthcoming games this weekend will put this thought to the test, for Lemont is at home to Wilmington High on Friday evening, Jan. 9, and then travels to Plano on Saturday, January 10. Frosh-soph activity gets underway 6:30 p.m. on each occasion.

Lemont was in complete command throughout the early going against Addison Trails. Lemont was on top 14-7 at the first quarter mark, and was still in command 30-20 at halftime.

There wasn't any need for finger biting in the third period either, as the locals continued to sail along at a pace which upped the margin to 50-38.

During the final stanza however, a lid went on the hoop and the Injuns were hard pressed to retain a lead which was to eventually literally hang by a thread.

Pierce Spencer and Dick Pierce were Lemont's offensive leaders with 15 and 13 markers. Steve Pociask, Mike Hennebry and Mike Heinz hit for 9, 8 and 6 points respectively. Rounding out our scoring were Dennis Bubinas (4), Dave Staudt (2) and Mark Forzley (1).

Things did not exactly look bright during the early stages of the contest with St. Gregory. A basket by Mike Heinz, plus a pair of free throws by Mark Forzley, constituted the Injuns entire first quarter point output.

St. Gregory also didn't exactly blister the nets, but they did manage a 9-4 lead at the initial break. By intermission time, the margin had been cut to 23-20.

The Jones Boys got up a full head of steam in the third quarter. They poured in 18 points while holding St. Gregory to a lowly 6 point total.

The momentum had now swung in Lemont's favor, and at no time did it take an unfavorable turn as the Injuns moved relentlessly toward the final 17 point verdict.

Senior forward Dennis Bubinas took game scoring honors with a fine 20 point listing, 16 of which came in the second half. Steve Pociask and Mike Heinz followed with readings of 13 and 9.

Pierce Spencer was a 6 shooter. Dave Staudt, Dick Pierce and Mark Forzley hit for 3, 2 and 2 respectively.

Also seeing action for Lemont were Greg McCoy, Alan Brown, Don Nelson, Tom Schwer, Rich Hoffman, John Schwer, Mike Hennebry and Jesse Gonzales.

Danville Tourney Is Not Kind To Spartan Team

LOCKPORT - Chuck Williams' 25-footer with only seconds remaining pulled the Spartans within one point of Danville Schlarman in the opening game of the Danville tournament. Williams' effort was too little, too late as the Spartans dropped the opener 52-51.

Ralph Papesh led all scorers with 23 points. Bob Coyne scored 14 points for the losers. West had a 33 percent average from the floor and a poor 58 percent mark from the freethrow line.

Lockport, trailing 16-9 after the first quarter, pulled up to within three points at halftime. A 12-8 lead in scoring during the second period gave the Spartans' boosters something to cheer about. The West team led only once during the entire game and that came early in the first period after two consecutive field goals by Papesh.

Coach Bill Parmentier saw his team give the ball away on 11 occasions compared with only four such gifts by the Danville five. Parmentier was obviously not entirely pleased with the early game shooting of his squad.

In second round play the Spartans zeroed in on the hoop and hit 24 of 53 shots from the floor for a 45 percent average. Their 62 percent average from the freethrow line, hitting 18 of 25 also was a great improvement over their first round play.

Ralph Papesh was again the scoring star of the contest as he sank 11 of 26 from the floor, seven of eight from the freethrow line for a 29-point total. Bob Coyne scored 14 points, most of them coming in the third quarter.

Despite early lapses in defense and rebounding the Spartans staved off a first period 18-15 lead by Clifton and went on to win the game handily. The Spartans rebounded successfully the remainder of the game chalking up a 35-23 edge in this department.

Lockport West's Wednesday day morning game proved to be their last game of the tournament as Morgan Park, capitalizing on 19 Spartan giveaways, took a 62-56 win.

Mike Washington, the Mustangs' gifted center, scored 25 points in leading his team to victory. Coach Bill Parmentier failed to come up with an adequate defense against the deadly shooting of Washington.

Ralph Papesh, West's leading scorer, once again led in the scoring column for the Spartans, as he had a total of 18 points. Bob Coyne and Mark Waiter each had eight points.

West had a 12-7 lead early in the first period, but were overtaken on six quick points by Morgan Park and the Spartans relinquished the lead. They were not to lead again until midway through the final period, taking advantage of five Mustang turnovers. The Spartans outscored the Mustangs 35-31 in the last half, but were unable to pull it out.

Porters Drop Final 2 Games At Pontiac

LOCKPORT -- The Porters fell by the wayside in their first basketball tournament of the season, as they dropped their final two games at Pontiac.

After a so-so 54-42 victory over Streator, in the opening round, Central went on to a second round win over Chicago's De La Salle 72-57. The second win was the only game in which the Porters put it all together. In their final two games they succumbed to superior shooting and rebounding by the opposition.

Clarence Bates, who led in rebounds with 21, scored 12 points as did Sylvester Smith and Gil Fash. Central nabbed 60 rebounds in displaying their best effort of the season in this department.

Accuracy from the floor was not one of the standout performances by Bob Basarich's charges. In 64 shots they sunk 17 for a percentage of 26-plus. Prior to this game the Porters were hovering at the 45 percent mark in dropping through the hoop. Bates and Travis each missed the mark better than 75 percent of the time.

Streator hit 16 of 60 shots from the floor in tallying an identical percentage from the floor. Only the saving grace of more shots from the floor and accuracy at the freethrow line permitted the Porters a victory.

Central's second tournament win, a 72-57 trouncing of a taller De La Salle team, was a game worthy of the Porters' claim to fame. With 29 of 52 floor shots in the cash register, the Porters had a 54 percent average. The Meteors managed 21 of 70 for a 30 percent average.

Bob Basarich's squad held a 22-15 lead after the first period and held their seven-point advantage at the end of the half as each team tallied 15 points in the second quarter.

Clarence Bates was the high scorer on both teams with 26 points coming on 12 of 20 floor shots and two of four freethrows. Brad Travis averaged almost 60 percent of his 17 shots from the floor and scored 22 points for Central.

DeLaSalle's height enabled them to outscramble the Porters in the rebounding department as the Meteors snared 38 against Central's 34.

Central's third game of the tournament was against top-rated Waukegan. The Porters, behind 16-14 at the end of the first period, held their own until midway in the second quarter. A 14-2 scoring spree by the Bulldogs at this point gave them a 35-26 halftime lead.

Clarence Bates and Brad Travis each had 12 points with identical averages in field goals and freethrows. Sylvester Smith was next in line with 10 points.

Waukegan displayed lapses in ball control and had 21 turnovers which failed to help the Porters' game. Meanwhile the Porters lost the ball on only eight occasions.

Central held the Waukegan team to 21 points in the last half while keeping pace with 21 points also. Waukegan's nine-point lead in the first two periods gave them a 56-47 win over the Porters and their first loss of the season.

In the final game of the tournament and a battle for third place, the Porters faced Bloom who had lost earlier in the day to LaSalle Peru. When it was over the Porters had suffered their second defeat of the day, and the season, 61-58.

Brad Travis had 19 points to lead the scoring for both teams. Clarence Bates and Billy Thompson scored 14 and 11 points respectively.

John Greenwood, Bloom's game star, scored nine points in the last period to make the difference. Late in the final period Bloom held a 60-58 lead and were stalling admirably. Gil Fash stole the ball with less than a minute to play. A field goal was missed by the Porters and Bloom rebounded. A foul shot by Bloom's Gary Clark was good and that was the game.

The Porters played Joliet

Catholic last Saturday night in a non-conference game.

Cook County Preamble LEGAL Cook County DELINQUENT TAX LIST Office of County Treasurer of Cook County and Ex-Officio County Collector of Cook County, Illinois.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1968 and for Order of Sales Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest as provided by law.

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Division of Circuit Court of Cook County on the 19th day of January, A.D., 1970 for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement.)

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 19th day of Jan., A.D., 1970, to-wit, the 2nd day of Feb., A.D., 1970, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots herein-after described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE -- In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1968. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B.T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appearing as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgement records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A", the sub-area by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

Published by order of County Collector of Cook County, Illinois.

'Homestead' Law To Cut Property Taxes

COOK COUNTY -- Homeowners who are 65 years or more of age have been advised to take action to benefit from a new state "homestead exemption" law that makes a reduction in property taxes possible.

The new law, which will become effective for real estate taxes to be collected in 1971, provides an exemption of $1,500 in the equalized assessment on homes owned by persons 65 years or older.

If there is a $7 tax-rate, the $1,500 exemption in the equalized assessment would mean that a home owner 65 years or older would be able to have $105 in the annual tax bill, as an example.

P.J. Cullerton, county assessor, explained that the exemption was made effective by the state legislature for assessments beginning in 1970. The 1970 assessments, he said, will be used as the basis for computing tax bills to be issued and collected in 1971.

"It will be necessary for all persons eligible for the $1,500 equalized value exemption to make an application for the exemption," said Cullerton.

"However, the application form is not yet ready for distribution, and the date for filing such applications has not yet been set," Cullerton said.

In the meantime, however, Cullerton urges all eligible home owners either to telephone his office at 321-5338 or to write his office, addressing the letter to P.J. Cullerton, Cook County Assessor, Room 325, County Building, Chicago, Illinois.

When the proper forms are available, the assessor's office will mail them to these home owners together with the necessary instructions.

Hunt Is At Peak

SOUTHWEST -- The roar of shotguns at public pheasant hunting areas was louder in 1969 than ever before.

Ed Fitzgerald, supervisor of public hunting for the Illinois Department of Conservation, said today that 23,750 sportsmen hunted on the seven areas and bagged 38,300 pheasants, about 71 per cent of the 53,867 birds released. In 1968, 21,923 sportsmen hunted on the seven areas and bagged 34,919 pheasants.

On the Des Plaines area near Wilmington, the most popular of the seven pheasant hunting areas managed on a permit basis, 5,923 sportsmen bagged 9,601 birds. At the Carlyle Lake area in Clinton County, 5,156 hunters killed 9,436 pheasants. A total of 3,154 hunters visited the Green River area near Ohio, Ill., and departed with 4,844 pheasants. On the Iroquois County area near St. Anne, 2,838 hunters killed 3,792 pheasants. At the Richland County area at Calhoun, 4,432 pheasants were bagged by 2,607 hunters. According to check station records, 2,478 hunters took 4,389 pheasants at the Shelby County area near Cowden. At the Chain O'Lakes area near Fox Lake, 1,806 pheasants were killed by 1,594 hunters. The limit on the public areas is two birds,

Material From Our Solar System

LEMONT -- Preliminary findings by a group of scientists at Argonne National Laboratory indicate the moon has led a reasonably peaceful existence for the last billion years, and that lunar material apparently comes from inside our solar system.

This information was disclosed Monday in Houston, Texas, by six Argonne scientists who are subjecting lunar dust from Apollo 11 to precise analysis with a mass spectrometer. The scientists are Paul R. Fields, who is principal investigator and Donald M. Metta, Herbert Diamond, Charles M. Stevens, Donald J. Rokop, and Parker E. Moreland. All are members of the chemistry division.

The scientists attempted to find minute quantities of radioactive isotopes which decay in thousands to millions of years. In each case, had a tiny amount of a particular isotope been found, it would have indicated that the isotope was formed by neutron irradiation or some other cosmic disturbance during a definite period of time.

The scientists searched for four of these isotopes but were unable to detect them with the Argonne apparatus, the world's only large mass spectrometer designed for high sensitivity isotope analysis.

With their sensitive apparatus the scientists also established the ratio of the two go. Palka then came up with a three-point play to make it 49-45.

That was the score when the fourth period started and Evanston held a three or four point lead until the frame was half over. Then Lincoln-Way started to work and drew even. Minger put the Knights ahead with a one-hand layup, 58-57. A little over three minutes remained. Webb sank two free throws to make it 60-57. Arrieta cut the score to 60-59 with two free tosses and another free throw by Goodwin tied it 60-all.

A jumper from the side by Webb put Lincoln-Way in front again with 1:56 left and Palka made two free throws to make it 64-60. Arrieta dropped in a basket with 1:32 on the clock and it was 64-62. Palka converted a rebound into a bucket and it was 66-62. Then Arrieta and Miller tied it at 66-66 with two quickies.

With the seconds ticking off the ball came into Webb's hands, he maneuvered, feinted and with only three seconds left -- that Webb and his three seconds -- he drew bead and dropped in a jump shot from the left side.

plentiful uranium isotopes (uranium-235 and uranium-238) and measured the abundance of thorium in their sample. The uranium ratio turned out to be similar to the uranium-235/uranium-

238 ratio on the earth and in meteorites. This similarity seems to indicate that the moon is made up of material from inside the solar system, the scientists said. The abundance of thorium in the moon sample also agreed closely with the abundance of thorium on the earth.

Fields stated that further analyses must be made to confirm the Argonne findings positively.

Moon Rock On Display

SOUTHWEST -- The largest piece of lunar material ever seen in the Midwest -- a moon rock -- is on display at Chicago's Museum of Science and Industry.

The lunar sample weighs 49.9 grams -- nearly two ounces. It is being displayed by special arrangement with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The sample is in a nitrogen-filled cylinder in the Museum's East Pavilion. So it may be seen in its entirety, it has been placed on a revolving turn-table with special lighting.

This sample was brought to Earth by the Apollo 11 crew in July, 1969.

The red carpet treatment is being given to this spectacular display, which is attracting visitors from all over the Midwest. The free exhibit is on display through February 1.

The rock sample is one of 15 being distributed by NASA throughout the United States to significant museums and institutions. NASA officials state that this will be the only opportunity for observation of lunar materials for at least a full year.

The moon rock will be on display during the Museum's regular hours -- 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sundays and holidays, with the exception of Christmas Day, the only day of the year on which the Museum is closed.
